This is a list of your courses on the system. They may be from past or future semesters but are shown here for a couple of reasons.

You can edit your courses and also get ideas for additional courses.

You can also click on the below to add a new course to this catalog. It won't automatically be listed in the schedule so feel free to add as many as you want.

Make sure that your syllabus file name is the name of your class, followed by 'syllabus'.
Example: The Biology class syllabus file name should be Biology Syllabus
